Trip summary

It is still possible to experience the essence of ancient Japan by travelling on the remaining 'kaido' or ancient roads that networked across feudal Japan. The great Imperial capitals were linked to provincial towns by these routes, used by merchants, artisans and feudal lords who made their way on horseback or foot from place to place. You can follow in their footsteps, walking from village to village and staying in beautifully preserved post-towns (juku).

After starting your journey in Tokyo you travel to the remote Kiso valley to start walking for four days on the Nakasendo trail, one of Japan's principal trade routes during the time of the shoguns. The trail originated in the 8th century and linked Kyoto and Edo (now Tokyo), winding through secluded, wooded mountain scenery, across the heart of Honshu Island. A scenic train ride takes you next to picturesque Mount Koya, set high in the hills of the Kii Peninsula. It has been a place of pilgrimage since the 9th century and is renowned for its numerous historic monasteries and temples - one of which you will spend the night in. From Mount Koya you travel to Nara, the first permanent capital of Japan and home to eight UNESCO World heritage sites, before walking the Yamanobe-no-michi - literally the 'path beside the mountains'. This ancient trail takes you through villages and farming land at the edge of the fertile Nara plain. Your final stop is Kyoto, Japan's capital for many centuries, where you can visit the Sanjo-ohashi Bridge, which was once at the western end of the Nakasendo trail that you walked earlier in the holiday.

This itinerary has been carefully created to immerse you in Japanese life and culture - both traditional and contemporary. Led by your expert guide, you will travel on the efficiently run local trains and buses - an essential ingredient of modern-day Japan - whilst your main luggage will be sent by courier to make the road and train transfers more relaxed.

One of the highlights of the holiday is the traditional accommodation you will enjoy whilst trekking. Villagers have converted local houses into inns or minshuku and ryokans - both have Japanese-style rooms with tatami mat floors and futon beds and many have communal hot spring baths for your relaxation. At the end of each day's trek, you will be warmly welcomed by your local hosts who take great pride in their beautifully kept accommodation and provide the highest levels of service. Exquisite meals are prepared using the freshest local ingredients that showcase the very best regional cuisine. At each inn, a cotton robe (yukata) and slippers are provided for your comfort and it is normal to wear these for dinner as well as whilst relaxing in the evening. There will also be toiletries in your room. This means, that on the few nights that your luggage is being couriered to your next destination, you will only have to carry a minimal change of clothes in your day pack (please see 'Special notes' and the 'Accommodation' section of this itinerary for further information).

The combination of stunning scenery, easy walking on ancient trails and experiencing Japan's unique culture, cuisine and traditions, make this gentle trekking holiday an unforgettable experience.

Special notes

Luggage

Your main luggage will be transported on three occasions, allowing you to carry just an overnight rucksack. On certain nights you won't have access to your main luggage, but the Japanese Inns you will be staying in provide cotton robes, warm jackets, indoor and outdoor slippers, towels, toothbrushes and paste, soap, shampoo and conditioner. It is normal to wear the cotton robes to eat dinner in, relax in your room and even wear outdoors, so you really can travel light! Please speak to Seraphina Berry in the office for further information.

Airport transfers

The cost of a transfer to/from the airport is included in the price of your holiday. This is a single, timed transfer which is arranged to coincide with the arrival/departure of the group flights. If you book your own flights which arrive/depart at a different time to this, or we book flights for you that have different timings, we will be happy to provide a quote for a separate transfer.

Please note, if booking your own flights you should ideally fly into Haneda airport in Tokyo from where the group transfer is arranged. If you arrive at Narita airport you will have to pay a transfer fee to get to the hotel.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Fly London to Tokyo

Fly overnight London to Tokyo.

Overnight: In flight

Day 2: Arrive Tokyo. Group transfer to hotel.

You will fly in to Tokyo international airport where you will be met and transferred to your hotel, conveniently located in the central business district. Please note that you may not be able to check in to your hotel until 2pm. However, you will still be able to use the hotel's luggage storage facilities as well as the hotel's bar/restaurant. You may also like to go out to explore what the city has to offer. Your guide will take you out to dinner.

Overnight: Shiba Park Hotel or Prince Hotel or Similar, Tokyo (Meals: D)

Day 3: Sightseeing in Tokyo.

Your first full day in Japan will be spent enjoying a walking tour of the Yanaka and Ueno areas of the city. Yanaka is an old quarter of Tokyo which still retains the charm of the Edo period, with many traditional houses, narrow streets and small temples. Popular with artists for its scenic quality, this area survived the bombing of World War II and gives a flavour of what Tokyo was like before it became a huge, concrete metropolis. The local shopping street, Yanaka Ginza, with its traditional shops stands in sharp contrast to high end Ginza district beloved by international brands.

You will stroll through peaceful neighbourhoods, visit Yanaka Cemetery and discover historic Tenno-ji Temple. In the afternoon, you continue on to Asakusa where you walk through the lively Nakamise shopping street and visit Kappabashi Kitchen Street. Asakusa is an old quarter in Tokyo's shitamachi ('low city') which still displays some narrow streets reminiscent of the Edo period of Tokyo's history. Its main attraction is Senso-ji, a large Buddhist temple with a five-storey pagoda, dating originally from the 7th century and rebuilt after its destruction during World War II. With Asakusa Shrine nearby, the complex serves as the site for several religious festivals throughout the year. Leading up to the main temple buildings is the Nakamise-dori, a pedestrian street lined with shops selling a variety of Japanese arts, crafts and souvenirs. At the end of the street is the Kaminari-mon, the famous entrance gate to the temple.

Overnight: Shiba Park Hotel or Prince Hotel or Similar, Tokyo (Meals: B)

Day 4: Transfer to the Kiso Valley, Walk to Narai - 2 miles, 1 hour.

Today brings the start of your journey through rural Japan in the remote Kiso valley region. Over the next three days you will walk by day from village to village, staying by night in small, family-run country inns (ryokan and minshuku).

To begin, a train takes you from Tokyo to Shiojiri where there is the opportunity to enjoy a lunch of buckwheat noodles. You then start your walk from Kiso-Hirasawa which is known for its locally-produced lacquer ware. There may be a chance to see the craftsmen at work before setting off for Narai - about 1.5 miles along the trail that follows the river. Narai is one of 11 'post-towns' along the Kiso valley section of the Nakasendo Trail. Post-towns were resting places where travellers could find accommodation and food as they walked between Kyoto and Edo (as Tokyo was then called). Narai marked the half-way point of the route between the two centres and remains one of the most beautifully preserved of all the post-towns. It is a fascinating place to wander round, and time permitting you can visit the re-built cedar bridge and the shrine just above the small town.

Your luggage today will be sent ahead from Tokyo to Kiso-Fukushima (where you will stay tomorrow) allowing you to carry just a light daypack on your short walk, with your overnight essentials. Your accommodation tonight is a delightful, minshuku inn in Narai.

Overnight: Iseya Minshuku or Shimade Minshuku or Similar, Narai (Meals: B D)

Day 5: Walk to Yabuhara over the Torii Pass, 1,196m/3,927ft - 4 miles, 3 hours. Transfer by train to Kiso-Fukushima.

Narai grew as a post town because it lay at the start of the highest pass on the Nakasendo Trail, and travellers would gather here to wait for good weather. It is a 270 metre/885feet climb on the extremely well graded path to the Torii pass, through beautiful mixed forest of chestnut, cedar and walnut trees. The pass is marked by a small re-built and uninhabited tea-house. There are beautiful views back down the hill to Narai from here. The descent from the pass is again on a very good path, with small shrines along the route. This is bear country, and there are bells to ring along the route to warn the bears to keep away! You walk into the small town of Yabuhara, where you will have lunch before continuing a short distance by train to Kiso-Fukushima.

Here you will stay up a secluded valley in a lovely, traditional ryokan with its own natural hot spring. You may soak in the large indoor bath or try the outdoor baths surrounded by trees. Many of the inns you stay in on your trek have been owned and run by the same family for many, many generations, so they take great pride in their high standards of service, comfort and cuisine. Your luggage, sent from Tokyo, will be waiting for you.

270m/885ft ascent, 344m/1128ft descent.

Overnight: Komanoyu Ryokan or similar (Meals: B D)

Day 6: Transfer to Nojiri. Walk the Nakasendo Trail to Tsumago - 9 miles, 6-7 hours.

Your luggage will be sent ahead this morning to Mount Koya. You will transfer from Kiso-Fukushima to Nojiri by train and, after a short taxi ride, walk for just under 9 miles along the Nakasendo Way to Tsumago. En route you will pass through delightful small villages, rice fields and scenic countryside. The path is undulating, with stretches of giant bamboo forests, cedar forest and deciduous trees. The small farming hamlets are incredibly picturesque and neat, with fields of rice well protected by fences from the bears, deer and wild-boar that inhabit this hilly landscape. Another of the post-towns on the former Nakasendo trail, Tsumago has been preserved by strict self-imposed rules that prohibit the sale, rental or destruction of the handsome houses. It's a living museum, but one which is still inhabited by the local residents. You will arrive in the afternoon and have a chance for a quick look around before continuing for a short distance to your accommodation at the attractive hamlet of O-Tsumago.

344m/1,128ft ascent, 723m/2,275ft descent.

Overnight: Tsutamaraya Minshuku or Similar, Tsumago (Meals: B D)

Day 7: Explore Tsumago, walk to Magome over the Magome Pass, 800m/2,624m - 5 miles, 3 -4 hours.

In the morning, you will have a leisurely start to the day, enjoying some time in Tsumago and have the opportunity to eat lunch there before continuing on to walk the five miles to Magome, your last stop in the Kiso Valley. The trail from Tsumago to Magome is the most beautiful and best-preserved part of the Nakasendo Trail and your walk is a delight from start to finish. Climbing gradually from Tsumago you reach a tea-house that has been used as a luggage depot for hundreds of years. After you enter the forest, you ascend on an ancient path to reach the two waterfalls of Odaki and Medaki. After climbing a little further you reach the Ichikokutochi tea-house. This large, wooden building, set in a pretty clearing, is little changed since the Edo period, and it is still possible to have a cup of Japanese tea here. You are almost at the highest pass of the day here, and it is a stunning walk down from the pass with beautiful mountain views to reach the post town of Magome. Magome is a busy tourist spot by day, but in the evening it becomes much quieter and you will have the chance to explore the many small shops and wander the streets.

You may also like to try gohei-mochi - skewered sticky rice covered in a sweet paste of soy sauce, sesame and walnuts; a local treat.

430m/1,410ft ascent, 326m/1,069ft descent.

Overnight: Hanasarasa Minshuku or Similar, Magome (Meals: B D)

Day 8: Transfer to Mount Koya, walk in afternoon around the temples and vast cemetery.

Today you will take a local train out of the mountains before travelling on the bullet train to Osaka, and then on by subway and limited express train to Mount Koya, situated in a bowl-shaped valley filled with stands of cedar trees 900 metres up in the mountains of the Kii Peninsula. Since the 9th century, when the priest Kukai (also known as Kobo Daishi) founded the first temple and the Shingon sect of Buddhism, Mount Koya has been a place of religious devotion and ceremony. Today there are more than 100 monasteries, many of which have shukubo (temple lodgings). You will stay in one of the temples, run by the monks, and dine on shojin-ryori (Buddhist vegetarian cuisine). You will also visit Kongo-buji temple and there will be a guided walk through the vast Okuno-in cemetery, with thousands of graves and memorials to feudal lords and other past luminaries. Your luggage, sent from Kiso-Fukushima, will be waiting for you at your inn.

Overnight: Yochiin Temple or Jofukin Temple or Similar, Mount Koya (Meals: B D)

Day 9: Transfer to Nara, afternoon sightseeing including the Todaiji Temple.

Your luggage will be sent ahead this morning while you travel by cable car and train to Nara. Nara was Japan's first permanent capital and many of its remarkable temples are spread throughout the beautiful park situated in the heart of the town. In the afternoon you will visit Todaiji Temple, one of the eight UNESCO World heritage sites in Nara. Todaiji temple's Daibutsu-den is the largest wooden building in the world, housing a 16-metre tall image of the Rushana Buddha in bronze and gold. Prior to being rebuilt three hundred years ago, the awesome wooden structure was even larger than today.

Overnight: Nikko Nara Hotel or Similar, Nara (Meals: B)

Day 10: Walk the Yamanobe No Michi - 8 miles, 4 hours.

This morning, following breakfast at your hotel, you will transfer to the trailhead to walk along the historic Yamanobe-no-michi, said to be the oldest road in Japan. This trail winds its way along the base of the hills, along a mix of forested and paved paths, which mark the edge of Yamato Plain, south of Kyoto and Nara, associated with the early Yamato clan who were the founders of the first unified Japanese state. The route is dotted with old shrines and burial mounds of the first emperors. In between are small villages together with fields of rice, vegetables, strawberries and other fruits. Also famous are the thin Miwa somen noodles, served with a light broth. Small shops along the way sell snacks such as mochi (rice paste), cakes covered in kinako (soya flour) and matcha (powdered green tea).

Overnight: Nikko Nara Hotel or Similar, Nara (Meals: B)

Day 11: Train to Kyoto, evening walk in Gion.

You will take the train to Kyoto and check into your hotel. Kyoto was Japan's capital for many centuries and is still regarded as the country's cultural heart. Luggage sent from Mount Koya will be waiting at your hotel. Kyoto is a very accessible city, with the delightful river-side path a lovely place to wander. There are numerous temples, museums and shops to visit, and in the evening you can enjoy a guided walk in Gion, Kyoto's geisha district, where there is the possibility of seeing a geiko (fully-fledged geisha) or maiko (apprentice geisha) making their way through the narrow streets.

Overnight: Hotel Hearton or Similar, Kyoto (Meals: B)

Day 12: Morning walking tour of Kyoto, afternoon free for shopping and further sightseeing.

There will be a half-day walking tour this morning. You first visit the Sanjo-ohashi Bridge which marks the western end of the Nakasendo Trail. You continue to Nanzenji, a tranquil Zen Buddhist temple whose history dates back to the mid-13th century when the Emperor Kameyama built his retirement villa here and later converted it into a temple. You then stroll along the Philosopher's Path with craft shops, cafes, shrines and temples beside the waters of a small canal. The path ends near Ginkakuji - the Silver Pavilion. There will be free time in the afternoon so you can explore the area further or shop for crafts and last minute souvenirs. By now you will be well-versed in tackling Japan's extremely efficient public transport system on your own! We would highly recommend visiting the Nishiki food market, and perhaps one of the very popular vintage shops selling second-hand kimonos. In the evening, there will be a farewell dinner with your guide.

Overnight: Hotel Hearton or Similar, Kyoto (Meals: B D)

Day 13: Group transfer to Osaka airport. Fly to London.

Today you will be transferred to the airport for your flight home. (Meals: B)

Our grading system

Gentle

Trips within this grade typically mix sightseeing with easy-paced half and/or full day walks. On these trips, walks will be on relatively low altitude trails, for a duration of around 4-6 hours. Holidays within this grade generally use hotels and comfortable lodges although a few do have some nights camping.

These holidays are suitable for people who enjoy easy-paced walks in the British countryside or exploring on foot rather than in a vehicle.

Your accommodation

We will endeavour to secure the hotels named in the itinerary but if our first choice of hotel is not available we will book a suitable alternative of a similar standard.

Accommodation in Tokyo and Kyoto is in western style hotels, with twin or single rooms available. In all other places the charming traditional ryokan, minshuku and temples have tatami mat flooring, futon beds, and western bathrooms either en suite or shared. Many have communal hot spring style baths, and all have delicious Japanese food. In the ryokan or minshuku single rooms are not generally available and single travellers will be paired with another traveller of the same sex from the Mountain Kingdoms group.

Please be aware that in Japan double rooms are much smaller than twin rooms. We will therefore automatically book a twin room for couples. If you would prefer one of the smaller double rooms, you just need to inform us when you make your booking.

Shiba Park Hotel or Prince Hotel or Similar, Tokyo

We use hotels such as the Shiba Park Hotel or Prince Hotel in Tokyo. These hotels have comfortable, western-style rooms with en suite facilities, air-conditioning, televisions and fridges, and are conveniently situated for sightseeing and transport links.

Iseya Minshuku or Shimade Minshuku or Similar, Narai

Minshuku are either traditional wooden buildings, or more modern constructions. The rooms are traditional Japanese style, with tatami matting floors and futons laid out in the evening. The food is Japanese and always beautifully presented and delicious! Bathrooms are generally shared, and there are often communal hot spring style baths segregated by gender.

Komanoyu Ryokan or similar

Set in a peaceful, forested area the Ryokan offers traditional rooms with tatami mats and futons, laid out in the evening by the ryokan staff. There are both indoor and outdoor hot spring baths (segregated by sex). A traditional multi-coursed evening meal is served in the dining room. Some en-suite rooms.

Tsutamaraya Minshuku or Similar, Tsumago

A traditional minshuku with Japanese style tatami mat rooms with futons. Shared bathrooms, delicious traditional food.

Hanasarasa Minshuku or Similar, Magome

This is a traditionally built minshuku with tatami mat rooms. As with most minshuku there are no en suite bathrooms but there are modern bathrooms available for guests use.

Yochiin Temple or Jofukin Temple or Similar, Mount Koya

The Yochiin is a peaceful, historic, Buddhist temple with tatami mat rooms with futons. Bathrooms are shared. It has a large, communal spa bath and jacuzzi, and serves delicious vegetarian food. You are welcome to join in with the Buddhist ceremonies that the monks perform daily, but there is no pressure to do so. We may also use the Jofukin Temple, another traditional Buddhist temple with similar facilities.

Nikko Nara Hotel or Similar, Nara

This is a pleasant, modern hotel with comfortable rooms that include TVs, hairdryers and free Wi-Fi. Some rooms have views of Mount Wakakusa and the Five-Storied Pagoda. The hotel has several dining options and also offers a public bath exclusively for hotel guests free of charge.

Hotel Hearton or Similar, Kyoto

We use modern, western style hotels such as the Hearton in Kyoto. Centrally situated and within reach of some of the main attractions. All rooms have en suite facilities, air-conditioning, televisions and fridges. Please note that Japanese hotel rooms are generally smaller than western hotel rooms.

Meal arrangements

All breakfasts and 7 dinners are included. Lunches are not included and your guide will help you organise your lunches which may be picnics or meals taken in local restaurants or cafes.

Flight arrangements

Flight inclusive from price

Remember, the earlier you book the greater your chances of securing the best fare.

The nature of adventure travel

Every effort will be made to keep to this itinerary but we cannot guarantee that things may not change, either before you travel or while you are away. By its very nature, adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected, particularly in more remote areas. A variety of factors such as adverse weather conditions, changes to local schedules and difficulties with transportation can all contribute to the need to make changes to the itinerary, often at the very last minute. Our Operations Manager and your Trip Leader will make every effort to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary and minimise the impact of any changes, but an easy-going and flexible nature is a real asset! Please note that all timings and distances given are approximate.

What our clients say

Staying in Ryokan, Minshuku and Temples was a definite plus as it enabled us to experience the traditional side of Japan.
- Miss W, Harrow

This was a lovely holiday. Travelling everywhere by public transport, staying in a ryokan, minshukus and a temple, and walking every day were unexpected highlights. As well as the Nakasendo Trail itself, we particularly enjoyed our stay at the temple in Koya-san and walking the Yamanobe No Michi trail, as well as visiting Nara and Kyoto.
- Andy, Hertfordshire

I liked the variety in the program in that we visited cities and rural areas. I enjoyed the experience of staying in the different types of accommodation, not just hotels.
- Mrs G, Hampshire

This trip was extremely well organised and all the travel arrangements etc worked perfectly. Aya was a very good guide giving us loads of insights into local culture and making requested amendments to the itinerary (we only asked for a few small ones!) with conscientiousness and good humour. The group size was ideal and everybody was very friendly and helpful to each other. Overall this was a wonderful trip in so many ways and I shall never forget it. Japan is such a beautiful and exciting country - made extra special by weather to die for, almost continuous wall to wall blue skies and warm sunshine every day but one!
-Mrs B, Devon

This was my first solo trip without family and friends so I was excited and nervous. I loved Japan and the people, experiencing the very modern working alongside the very traditional. The mix of trekking, visiting temples, cities and seeing traditional crafts was great. Staying in the Minshuku and Ryokans was a real experience and gave us a flavour of the past. Overall an amazing adventure that I shall treasure.
-Mrs M W, Lancashire

We loved this trip. We wanted to see Japan but not at the frantic pace of most tours. This itinerary allowed us to experience Japan in all its glory, without the feeling of rushing between its various sites. From our first outing in Tokyo, visiting a beautiful Shinto shrine, to our final walk along the Philosophers Trail in Kyoto, the whole trip was spectacular. Our guide was excellent, managing to herd us gently and expertly, always ready to help, translate, explain and enlighten us on any matters Japanese. The minshuku and ryokan were all very comfortable and welcoming, with lovely food.
-Mr & Mrs T, Nottingham

In an age where many so-called 'independent' travel companies have in fact been bought out by multi-national giants, we remain fiercely independent with all the benefits this offers our clients.

Value for money prices with an emphasis on quality

We are not in the business of cutting our itineraries and services to the bone to offer eye-catching cheap prices. We use some of the best airlines, and typically 3 or 4 star hotels in cities. We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Complete financial security

You can book with us confident that your holiday has full financial protection. Flight inclusive holidays are financially protected by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL licence number 2973 and 'Land Only' holidays are covered by a bond secured with ABTOT.

No Surcharge Guarantee

Your peace of mind is important to us so we have a No Surcharge Guarantee on all Land Only and Flight Inclusive bookings. This means that there will be no change to the price of your holiday once we have confirmed your booking, regardless of fluctuations in exchange rates or fuel prices.

Award winning Responsible Tourism

We feel strongly that all our holidays should benefit local communities, protect the environment and respect local traditions, religion and heritage. You can read more about the charities we support and our Responsible Tourism commitments and initiatives on the following page or at www.mountainkingdoms.com.

Genuine small group travel

Almost all of our holidays have a maximum group size of just 12, plus leader. This provides more contact with your leader, readier access to off-the-beaten-path areas, greater interaction with local communities and a reduced environmental impact.

Loyalty Discount

If you have previously travelled with us we recognise your loyalty with a discount on future trips.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.

Comprehensive information

When we receive your booking we send you a full trip dossier which contains details of visas and vaccinations required, a suggested gear and clothing list and lots of useful information. In fact, everything you need to know to give you peace of mind and allow you to prepare for your trip of a lifetime.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM STATEMENT CLIMATE EMERGENCY PLAN

For over 33 years, Mountain Kingdoms has been offering people the chance to visit amazing places on this extraordinary planet. We now offer trips to all corners of the world, but we are conscious that inevitably our holidays have a detrimental impact on the world around us, and we want to do all we can to reduce our carbon emissions. We are a signatory to Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency, along with a growing number of like-minded, reputable tour operators. For more information, please visit www.tourismdeclares.com

From 2020 onwards, we will be focusing on how we can reduce the carbon emissions that our holidays produce, and how to counterbalance this carbon by supporting carbon offset measures. Here are some of our current and future plans to minimise the impact of our business as a whole:

Carbon Offsetting

Already doing:

- ✓ We have been offsetting carbon since 2007, but will be increasing our donations to the Ecoan tree planting project in Peru this year. This is with a trusted partner where the funds go directly to a project where the community plants trees on its own land.

Will do:

- ✓ We are working on making our carbon offsetting more accurate and targeted.
- ✓ In future, we will add to that a further estimate for carbon produced by hotels, local road travel, trains and internal flights to arrive at a carbon offset sum for each trip we operate.
- ✓ Carbon offsetting will be included in our holiday prices. For our Flight Inclusive holidays it will include the international flight and any emissions produced by inland travel and accommodation. Our Land Only prices will include the cost of offsetting emissions caused by inland travel and accommodation.

Reducing Carbon Emissions

Already doing:

- ✓ We already offer the majority of our customers a free filtered water bottle which means they can instantly cut down on their single-use plastic consumption. This will be an ongoing project.
- ✓ We already predominantly use locally owned hotels, but will continue to ensure that, where possible, we use these rather than multinational chains.
- ✓ We have joined the Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency initiative to stand alongside like-minded travel companies, to work together to initiate best practices to make tourism as sustainable as possible.

Will do:

- ✓ We will re-evaluate our flights to make sure we are using the most fuel efficient airlines with the youngest fleets and, where possible, direct flights for each trip.
- ✓ We will stop offering unnecessary optional flights – for example our Everest sightseeing trip.
- ✓ We will eliminate unnecessary staff flights wherever possible.
- ✓ We will look at minimising internal flights.
- ✓ We will be asking all our worldwide agents and suppliers to look at their own carbon footprint and encourage them to reduce it.
- ✓ We will promote our more low impact trips to give customers an informed choice.

As part of our wider commitment to Responsible Tourism, we will continue to support a number of charities with whom we have had a long standing relationship over many years. These include: Shiva Charity in Nepal (Ginette Harrison School), Simien Mountains Mobile Medical Service and Porter Welfare, as well as setting aside a sum for emergency disaster relief should the need arise.
